

RESOURCE LIST

Duty to Support: Supporting Families to Stay Together

Sheway

Pregnancy outreach program for pregnant and parenting people who use substances or have a recent history of using substances. Sheway offers both medical and social supports including prenatal care, daily meal program, housing support, infant development and counseling. <https://www.vch.ca/en/location/sheway>

Young Pregnant and Parenting Program

Youth Pregnancy and Parenting Program (for youth 24 and under) offers a maternity clinic for youth living in Vancouver and who are facing multiple barriers. Physicians may access the medical clinic for maternity care with a nurse practitioner and physicians that deliver at BC Women's Hospital. <https://www.vch.ca/en/service/youth-pregnancy-parenting-program-yppp>

RainCity

The Budzey is unique to both Vancouver's Downtown Eastside and to RainCity Housing. It provides opportunities for women and families living there to make connections with a comprehensive range of services and navigate the change from previous housing situations or homelessness into stable, supported, permanent housing.

WestCoast Leaf

West Coast LEAF works to deepen justice and substantive equality for women, people who experience gender discrimination, and Indigenous peoples and communities. Through our community-engaged legal practice, we collaborate with those most impacted and marginalized by systems of oppression, and stop at nothing less than transformative social change.

UpEnd

The upEND Movement is a collaborative movement that works to abolish the existing child welfare system, which is built on a model of surveillance and separation and is more accurately described as a family policing system. Abolition requires ending this oppressive system AND imagining and recreating the ways in which society supports children, families, and communities in being safe and thriving.
